STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, MARCH 20, 1906.

NO. 6.

Here and There.

Miss Susan B. Anthony left her estate, valued at $10,000, to the woman's suffrage cause.

D. J. Boles was given a life sentence at Quitman, Ga., for giving his wife poisoned sardines, which caused her death.

Dr. F. W. Achilles, professor of chemistry at the State University at Bloomington, Ind., fell down stairs at Evansville and died a few hours later from his injuries.

Doctors of Southern States and a Government representative reached the unanimous decision that the yellow fever suspect who died at New Orleans did not have the dreaded disease.

Four cars were derailed by a broken wheel on an Illinois Central freight train, near Horse Branch, and M. Ferguson, a boy, who was standing near the track, was killed by the overturning cars. No one else was injured.

The Frankfort Business Men's Club appointed committees from its membership to arrange for laying the cornerstone of the new State Capitol. The cornerstone will be laid about the middle of April, the exact date to be fixed later and a programme of exercises, including addresses by Kentuckians of note, will be arranged. An effort will be made to arrange railroad rates from all points in the State for the occasion, which will be one of the most notable in the history of the Capital.

HYOMEL CURES CATARRH

Its Healing Balsams Kill All Catarrhal Germs—Sold Under Guarantee by Mr. Penny.

There is no more common disease than catarrh, and none that is more dangerous. It weakens and debilitates the whole system, if it is allowed to run, leads to serious, and sometimes to fatal complications.

It is a noteworthy fact that among the many medicines and treatments for catarrh, there is only one which Mr. Penny sells under his positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure—Hyomel. Nature's remedy for the cure of catarrh.

No dangerous drugs are taken into the stomach when Hyomel is used. Breathed through the small pocket inhaler that comes with every Hyomel outfit, its healing balsams penetrate to the most remote cells of the throat, nose and lungs, killing the germs of catarrh, healing the irritated mucous membrane, and making complete and lasting cures.

The complete Hyomel outfit, consisting of an inhaler that can be carried in the purse or vest pocket, a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Hyomel, costs only $1. The inhaler will last a life time, while extra bottles of Hyomel can be procured, whenever needed, for only 50 cents.

Mr. Penny is selling a good many Hyomel outfits at this season, and he has so much confidence in the remedy that he guarantees to refund the money in case it does not cure.

"Tommy, why are you not at your sister's wedding?"

"Cause she's marryin' the wrong man, an' I told 'em I'd sing right out an' tell the preacher so."

"What is the matter with the young man?"

"He yanked me out from under the sofa once an' spanked me!"—Chicago Tribune.

FOR SALE.—A nice large store room and dwelling above, consisting of several nicely furnished rooms. A good barn and lot and all necessary outbuildings. The property is in good repair, situated on Main street in Stanford, Ky., right in the business portion of town. The property will be sold at a bargain and is a splendid opportunity for some one desiring to go in business, for the store and dwelling combined will be a great saving in rent, etc. Possession given immediately. For particulars, etc., see or write L. R. Hughes, Stanford.

Clears the Complexion.

Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup stimulates and thoroughly cleanses the system and clears the complexion of pimples and blotches. It is the best laxative for women and children as it is mild and pleasant, and does not gripe or sicken. Orino is much superior to pills, aperient waters and all ordinary cathartics as it does not irritate the stomach and bowels. Penny's Drug Store.

Mr. Sainly—Things do not always go as we plan. "Man proposes and"

Miss Oldemayde—He does, eh? Well, go ahead, sir, and prove that the saying is true.

It will not cost you a cent to try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and they are excellent for stomach troubles and constipation. Get a free sample at Dr. W. N. Craig's, the popular druggist at Stanford, Ky.

LANCASTER.

Wild ducks are plentiful and many have been killed on ponds in this vicinity.

George Carlet, a well-known colored blacksmith, died here Saturday after a long illness.

The fiscal court is figuring on extensive and much needed improvements on the court house.

A number of Negroes were fined for vagrancy in the circuit court. Likewise many blind tiger operators.

The Masonic lodge has rented the rooms over the Central Record office and will spend a lot of money in making them the most beautiful lodge rooms in the State.

Several architects have been here in the last week figuring with the promoters of the hotel, opera house and bank building. It is a settled fact that work will begin in the early spring on each of these buildings.

The Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias will give a series of entertainments at the court house this Spring. This lodge will attend the grand encampment at New Orleans this summer, possibly entering the competitive drills.

Arthur Joseph is ill of tonsillitis. Miss Frankie Kauffman has returned from a visit to Richmond. Miss Carrie Curry and brother, Theo., attended the funeral of Mrs. Gaines at Danville. Charles Davis and wife are visiting her parents, Jacob Joseph and wife.

The fire in Sweeney's livery stable did very little damage. It caught from a stove pipe between the office ceiling and the floor of an up-stairs room. Some little excitement was created by the horses and mules getting loose and running through the streets.

The case of the Commonwealth against William Ward for killing Henry Patterson last fall was called in the circuit court Monday morning. A special venire of 50 men were summoned from Madison, the order for Jessamine having been changed, and they arrived yesterday morning. The case will consume most of this week.

The funeral of Mrs. Susan Price was conducted at her late home on Danville Ave., by Rev. F. M. Tindler, interment taking place in Lancaster cemetery. She had been ill for some time and while her death was a shock, it was not unexpected. Had Mrs. Price lived until March 20th she would have been 91 years old. Two children survive her, Mrs. Martha Frisbie, of Lancaster, and Mr. W. C. Price, of Danville.

Emory McWhorter bought a horse of Ollie Barne for $175. Job Marsee sold several loads of corn to J. T. Upton at $2.25. John Jackson bought a two-year-old filly from Sam Morford for $130. Will Sutton bought a calf for $12.50. Allen Shearer sold a colt to Nelson Marsee, of Marksburg, for $85. Virgil Scott bought a young horse of John Lane for $100. H. F. Edminton delivered his tobacco to Nicholasville parties at 6¢.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Hamilton have returned from a month's stay in Memphis. The many friends of Dr. Walter Beazley, who has been ill of pneumonia at his home in Los Angeles, Cal., will be glad to know that he is much improved and out of danger. Mr. A. G. Lackey has returned to his home in Kansas City, after a few weeks' visit to his parents here. Misses Margaret and Joan Mount will leave the latter part of the week for a visit to friends at La Grange.

The Farris blind tiger law was given a new test in the circuit court by the trial of several parties for hauling beer into Lancaster. This being a local option town, the last grand jury returned several indictments against parties whose teams had been used in hauling liquor from Stanford and Danville. In one case there was a hung jury but in the one against James Cox the jury returned a verdict of $50 and 10 days in jail. We understand the case will be appealed to test the validity of the law.

The following cases have been disposed of in the circuit court: John Osburn, malicious cutting, $50; Porter McCreary, shooting on highway, $50; Lewis Humphrey, furnishing liquor to a minor, $50; Ed Warren, breach of the peace, $50; Wm. Percifer, hauling beer into Lancaster, hung jury; Ed Anderson, colored, vagrancy, not guilty. The case of Stewart Humber, who killed another Negro last July, was continued to next court. Judge Bell's charge to the grand jury was especially forcible and impressive. He called their attention to the duties before them and dwelt particularly upon the local option laws, urging a thorough investigation of the illegal sale of liquor.

CORNS CURED.—Corn Exit will positively remove corns in four days. The treatment is simple and pleasant and we absolutely guarantee to refund the money to each and every customer whose corns are not promptly removed with entire satisfaction. A bottle of this great preparation only costs 15 cents and nothing if a perfect cure is not speedily effected. G. L. Penny, druggist, Stanford, Ky.

Always Keep Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the House.

"We would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is kept on hand continually in our home," says W. W. Kearney, editor of the Independent, Lowry City, Mo. That is just what every family should do. When kept on hand ready for instant use, a cold may be checked at the outset and cured in much less time than after it has become settled in the system. This remedy is without a peer for croup in children, and will prevent the attack when given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, which can only be done when the remedy is kept at hand. For sale by Dr. W. N. Craig, the popular druggist at Stanford, Ky.

HUSTONVILLE.

The last contract made by our city council was for feeding prisoners at 14c per meal.

Mr. Evan Lyon's illness continues quite serious and his many friends are hoping for his early change for the better.

George Tucker caught a 54-pound green bass at Roy's mill recently that had the credit of breaking many lines last year.

Dame Rumor seldom errs in her work and a tip calls for the marriage in the near future of an old bachelor who lives just over the Casey county line. More anon.

Messrs. Mills and Averitt, of Bradfordsville, were guests of Rev. G. W. Mills. Mr. George M. Givens has returned home after spending the winter at Mobile, Ala.

Wm. Wheat, the enterprising merchant of Mt. Salem, anticipating the early building of a rail road near his place, has bought double the amount of goods of any of his previous purchases.

Miss Lettie Levi Leati Turpin, of Kiddville, and Arch McWhorter, of Casey county, eloped last week to Indiana, where they were married. Upon their return they will make their home at Henry McKinney's.

Notice is given every member of the Hustonville Commercial Club to attend the meeting at the opera house Thursday evening, as the railroad and water works committees have very important reports and recommendations to make, necessitating a full attendance for final action in the work of these committees.

Not many years past there was seemingly an irrepressible tidal wave of trade from this locality going each season to neighboring cities. The excuse offered was a want of variety from which to select. Our merchants taking the cue have gradually increased their stocks in every line, which has relieved the cause, and thereby is not only holding the trade at home, but bringing it to our city from those points where ours had been going. Our people are now evidencing a desire to see our city flourish even beyond the fondest hopes of our best citizens by patronizing the home dealers.

Will Lillard and Jake Huguely, of Boyle, who were in this vicinity buying hogs, spent a pleasant evening with Mr. John P. Riffe and family. Miss Ada Atorn left Friday for Chicago to visit her sister, Miss Mattie. Richard Popplewell, of Russell, a veteran of the civil war, was a guest of relatives in this section last week. James C. Pelley and Harry Raines, of Liberty, passed through here Sunday en route to the cities to buy goods. Prof. R. S. Eubank and Chas. Wheeler were in Lexington last week on important business connected with some matters of interest to our city. C. L. Holmes, of Louisville, and Col. Josh Swope, of "everywhere," spent a few days in our city hustling for business and mingling with friends.

School Children's Dyspepsia.

The common form of dyspepsia, or indigestion, which stops the growth, pales the cheeks, weakens the system of so many school children, is often due to improper or too quickly eaten lunches. While seeing to a correction of the cause, it is also important to cure the disordered conditions of the stomach and bowels. This can be done by no other medicine so safely and surely as by Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin. Try it. Sold by G. L. Penny, Stanford, and C. W. Adams, Hustonville, at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

At a mass-meeting of Louisville manufacturers and merchants resolutions were adopted declaring for a graded license tax on rectified whisky and urging the Louisville Representatives in the General Assembly to support such a tax by their votes.

Gallops for Aid.

When your stomach is all upset, your liver in bad shape, your bowels out of whack, your head like to split, and every nerve in your body on edge, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin gallops for aid and you get it. It clears out your poisoned system, brings fresh, clean blood-supply to all your digestive organs, and restores to you that comfortable feeling of perfect health. Sold by G. L. Penny, Stanford, and C. W. Adams, Hustonville, at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

Sam Jones says that John D. Rockefeller, whose whereabouts are a mystery, is within half a mile of hell. As the clerical clown has located hell in close proximity to so many places, the sheriff will find some difficulty still in serving papers on the old fellow.—Frankfort Journal.

These are the saddest words we meet As through this life we jog: "He used to be on Easy street, But now he's on the hog."
